

Troop 121 will be attending MassJam 23. The event will be held Columbus Day weekend, 2023, at the Barnstable County Fair grounds located in Falmouth on Cape Cod, Massachusetts. At MassJam 23, Scouts, Venturers and their leaders will camp together for a mini-jamboree experience. MassJam 23 promises to be a real exciting Scouting event. The theme for the event: MassJam on TOAST (Tommorows Oopportunities Always Start Today).

Where and when will MassJam 23 be held?

MassJam 23 will be held at the Barnstable County Fair Grounds on Route 151 in the Cape Cod community of Falmouth. The site is easily accessible by routes 495, 28, and 3, and has over 100 acres of camping area. Details and maps will be provided. MassJam 23 will take place during the long Columbus Day weekend, October 7-9, 2023. For updates check their website – www.massjam.org.

Place: Barnstable County Fair Grounds on Route 151 in Falmouth, MA.

Contact Info for Campground: Barnstable County Fair Grounds

Dates: Saturday, October 7, 2023 through Monday, October 9, 2023

Travel Information:

Depart: North American Martyrs Church parking lot at 8 AM Saturday, October 7, 2023

Return: North American Martyrs Church parking lot approximately 1 PM, Monday, October 9, 2023

Mode of transportation: Private vehicles

Cost: $40 per person paid by check or passport account. Snacks and Merc at the Trading Post are extra.

Meals: This trip will be Troop cooking.

Equipment: Please refer to the gear list on the web site.

Permission Slips: All Scouts who attend must have one. Please download it from the web site.

 We will not be stopping for breakfast on Saturday morning, please be prepared by eating before we leave or bagging a breakfast or both.